

Social Performance

Resource companies have always been significant contributors to the local communities where they operate. Infoscope can help address your social contribution and overall social performance by recording engagement programs to manage the progress and ongoing value creation.

INDIGENOUS PARTICIPATION

Indigenous participation can be effectively achieved through targeted programs with an individualised approach to each community connected with a project. Infoscope is a highly configurable and scalable tool that can help you develop, deliver and manage these programs and their outcomes.

LOCAL TRAINING AND EMPLOYMENT

Enabling a local workforce often starts with identifying and assessing skills shortages, creating targeted training programs and enabling effective human resource assimilation. Infoscope manages the suitability of candidates, skills and competency registers, and can manage the training programs. Further to that, Infoscope also delivers on integrated case management for tracking ongoing outcomes of these training and employment programs.

LOCAL BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

With growing commitment to enabling and empowering local business in a transparent and equitable manner, robust and integrated systems are important. Infoscope helps track the contracted information through your supply chain and the financial value of each contract, as well as the benefits that it has delivered for local communities.

SOCIAL INVESTMENT & PERFORMANCE

The overarching message around social performance needs to be aligned to corporate strategies and needs a transparent review and approval process. Infoscope can help outline the various programs and how they are best aligned based on individual outcomes.

PART OF THE BIG PICTURE

As an external relations manager, access to employment processes or even supply chain processes can be challenging. Added to this is the need to understand this in the context of the overall heritage and environmental engagement. Infoscope is your one-stop interface to this critical information which can save time and improve effectiveness.
